How your data is used and shared by Insurers and Databases in relation to household insurance

The data you provide will be used by us and shared with other insurers as well as certain statutory and other authorised bodies for:

- Insurance underwriting purposes, i.e. to examine the potential risk in relation to your (and/or a third party's) prospective policy so that we can:
  - consider whether to accept the relevant risk;
  - make decisions about the provision and administration of insurance and related services for you and members of your household;
  - validate your (or any person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim) claims history (at any time, including upon application for insurance, in the event of an incident or a claim, or at a time of a mid-term adjustment or renewal).

- Management information purposes, i.e. to analyse insurance and other markets for the purposes of:
  - portfolio assessment;
  - risk assessment;
  - performance reporting;
  - management reporting.
- Anti-fraud purposes i.e. to detect and prevent fraudulent claims and/or activities by:
  - sharing information about you with other organisations and public bodies including the police;
  - tracing debtors or beneficiaries, recovering debt, managing your accounts and/or insurance policies;
  - undertaking fraud searches. Insurers pass information to the Claims Underwriting and Exchange Register administered by Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB). This helps insurers check information and prevent fraudulent claims. When we deal with your request for insurance we may search these registers.
- Compliance with legal obligations and responsibilities, including:
  - Claims management – In the event of a claim we may need to disclose information with any other party involved in that claim, e.g. third parties involved in the incident, their insurer, solicitor or representative and medical teams, the police or other investigators. We also may have to investigate your claims history;
  - Complaints management - If you make a complaint about the service we have provided, we may be obliged to forward details about your complaint, including your Personal Information, to the relevant ombudsman.

We can supply on request further details of the agencies and databases we access or contribute to and how this information may be used. If you require further details, please contact us.

Fraud prevention and detection

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may at any time:

- Share information about you with other organisations and public bodies including the Police;
- Undertake credit searches and additional fraud searches;
- Check and/or file your details with fraud prevention agencies and databases, and if you give us false or inaccurate information and we suspect fraud, we will record this.

We and other organisations may also search these agencies and databases to:

- Help make decisions about the provision and administration of insurance, credit and related services for you and members of your household;
- Trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud and to manage your accounts or insurance policies;
- Check your identity to prevent money laundering, unless you provide us with other satisfactory proof of identity;
- Check details of job applicants and employees.

Claims history

- Under the conditions of your policy you must tell us about any insurance related incidents (such as fire, water damage, theft or an accident) whether or not they give rise to a claim. When you tell us about an incident we will pass information relating to it to a database.
- We may search these databases when you apply for insurance, in the event of any incident or claim, or at time of renewal to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim.

We can supply on request further details of the databases we access or contribute to. If you require further details please contact us.

Your cancellation rights

You have a statutory right to cancel your policy within 14 days from the day of purchase or when you receive your policy or renewal documents, whichever is the later.

- a. If you cancel before the cover start date you will receive a refund of any premium you have paid.
- b. If cover has started you will receive a refund as set out in (a), less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover.

See the General Conditions in your policy booklet for full details of the cancellation conditions.

- (a) give you an opportunity to renew your insurance for a further year; or
- (b) let you know that we are unable to renew your insurance.

If we don't offer renewal we will tell you why, for example:

- the product is no longer available;
- we reasonably suspect fraud;
- your claims history is poor;
- we have changed our eligibility criteria;
- you no longer meet our eligibility criteria; or
- you have not taken reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask.

If we offer renewal we will tell you:

- about any changes we are making to your policy terms and conditions;
- to check this insurance continues to meet your needs;
- to check that the information we have is still correct; and
- next year's price.

If you wish to make any changes at renewal, please visit www.direct.aviva.co.uk/MyAccount/login
